Service

Throughout the year the Junior Civinette Club was kept busy performing the duties of a service club. Selling candy at Halloween was the first project of the year for Civinettes. At Thanksgiving the club distributed food to an unfortunate family. The Civinettes later displayed their singing abilities when they went Christmas caroling. The goals of the Junior Civinettes are much the same as those of the Junior Civitans in that they also aid in developing good citizenship in high school girls. The Senior Civitan Club of Alamance is the sponsor for Southern's Civinettes.

Jr. Civinettes

First Row: Karen Moon, Sergeant-at-Arms; Wanda McGhee, Secretary; Frankie Pickard, Vice President; Lucy Hill, President. Second Row: Karen Sharpe, Corresponding Secretary; Janie Ward, Chaplain.

Jr. Civitans

Civitans produce Southern gentlemen.

The Junior Civitan Club's objective is to encourage the building of a good citizenship in high school boys through participation in community and school projects. The cultivation of a social relations, good fellowship, and co-operation in all kinds of activities is a primary goal of the club. Another of the Junior Civitans' objectives is the promotion of clean living and good sportsmanship. The club also strives to instill the high ideals of Senior Clubs in its members.

The Junior Civitans are sponsored by the Senior Civitan Club of Alamance.

Interact

After a boy has become a member of the Southern High School Interact Club, he finds himself confronted by challenges, responsibilities, and opportunities. He is given the task of working together with his fellows in the true spirit of service and world-wide understanding.

Building constructive leadership is a primary goal of the club. Also, the Interact Club strives to construct highways of personal and group action which will lead to the advancement of good will.

First Row: David Patterson, Vice President; George Birchett, President. Second Row: Harold Wright, Secretary; Kenneth Ingle, Treasurer.

School Spirit

"School Spirit, say let's hear it . . ."

Behind every successful team is school spirit. No matter how many good players a team has, who the coach is, or how much teamwork is involved, a team still needs the support of its fans and of its school.

Cheerleaders, devoted fans, and the players themselves helped to inspire school spirit and good sportsmanship among Southern's students.

Monogram

The purpose of the Monogram Club is to promote good sportsmanship and give recognition to the deserving athletes. Members of the club consist of students who have excelled in high school athletics and who have earned a letter.

Each spring, some of the prettiest and hardest working girls at Southern try out for majorette. Only a selected few are chosen based on their routines and abilities. The Confederettes promoted interest during halftime and added to school spirit. They are also selected upon their abilities to perform. Both groups performed at football games, numerous local parades, the Veterans Day parade in Greensboro, and the Inaugural parade at Raleigh. All the girls practice and work hard to represent Southern.

When these girls were selected in the spring of last year, hard and long hours of practice began. Headed by Sylvia Boggs, the cheerleaders did an exceptionally good job of promoting school spirit and uniting the student body at Southern this year. Cheering at all football and basketball games, they inspired sportsmanship and determination among our teams. Win or lose, there were always thirteen familiar faces cheering the Southern Confederates to a victory. Chosen to represent our

Confeds advance to mid-state play-offs

Head Coach; Walter Hanford and Honorary Captain, Sam Fisher.

Since August 8, the Varsity Confederates have been working together to produce one of the finest and highest-scoring football teams in the state.

In addition to the mighty "Rebel" defense, the Confeds have astounded their Mid-State 3-A opponents with their equally effective rushing and aerial attacks.

Our excellent season record of 8-2 was due to a large extent to our fine coaching staff. Head coach Walter Hanford spent many hours trying to perfect our team plus teaching them leadership and sportmanship. His assistant coaches, Wade Matthews and Roy Clayton, did a great job working with our line and backfield.

These coaches combined to help develop All-Conference players in Sam Fisher, Brent Isley, Terry Johnson, and Bobby Guthrie.

“We’ve

The first score of the 7-6 defeat came early in the first half, as Sam Fisher scored to climax an early Confederate drive. The extra point attempt failed and the mighty Confeds were forced to turn the ball over to Western. The Rebel Defense held for the entire first half, but the Confederate offense could not surmount another drive. The entire second half consisted of taking turns trying to score until the Warriors connected on a pass play that tied the game with 1:35 left on the clock. The extra point was good and proved to be the deciding factor of the game.

The Southerners traveled to Northwest to seek a victory after the first game upset. By playing hard and refusing to commit costly penalties, the Confeds blasted the Vikings 46-0.

got the combination . . . ”

For the second time in our school's history our own mighty Confeds downed our arch rival, Graham, before a large crowd of Southern supporters. Our defense held the Red Devils scoreless for the complete game, while our offense put together several drives only to be stopped by costly fumbles and severe penalties. The only score of the night came late in the first half when Bobby Guthrie plunged over from the one-yard line. His own kick made the final score: Southern-7, Graham-0.

The Confederates traveled to Bartlett-Yancey to face one of the toughest opponents of the season. For the first time, the Confeds had to come from behind; and early in the second half, they surmounted two drives to make the final score 13-7.

Seniors add

The Conference champions, Southeast Falcons, swept down on our homecoming and destroyed dreams of a conference victory. Halfback Charlie Welch penetrated our defense for touchdowns as the Confed offense could not pile up enough points. The Falcons took home an 18-13 win.

The mighty Confeds earned a state play-off bid by conquering the Eastern Eagles 33-13. Backs Sam Fisher and Andy Patterson led the rushing attack as they scored six points each. The Southerners also took to the air as Bobby Guthrie found end Brent Isley in the end-zone for a sixteen yard touchdown. Warren Hardin caught another and raced across the goal line.

Strength and experience

The Leadership of the senior Confeds highlighted our team this year and made it one of the finest in the county. Having worked together for several years, these boys helped make our season one to be long remembered. Although they will not be at Southern next year, they have influenced our team by making them realize the importance of sportsmanship, leadership, and honesty.

Cheerleaders boosted spirit

Headed by Carol Smith, the J.V. cheerleaders have done an outstanding job this year. Not only do they cheer "their boys" to victory, but they also help to promote better school spirit. Making the Confederate Flag, selling programs, cheering at pep rallies, and practicing long, hard hours are typical of the J.V. Cheerleaders.

Junior Confeds Stormed to Victory

Under the guidance and leadership of head coach, Charles Stanley, and his assistant coaches, James Sipe and John Ellerbee, the junior Confeds battled their way to a better-than-average season. The overall record of six wins, three losses, and one tie reflects excellent potential for our future varsity teams. The more outstanding players for this year's Confeds were David Sharpe, Eric Faircloth, Bobby Troxler, Felton Atwater, and freshman quarterback David Vaughn.

Clayton Rebuilds Confed Cagers

This year's varsity basketball team has improved greatly over last year's team. The 1968-69 season could almost be called a success as Southern's roundball Confederates compiled nearly a half-and-half won-lost record. Several of the hardwood games were close decisions in which the lead seesawed back and forth until the final seconds when the opposing team managed to pull out a one or two point victory. Southern's cagers showed great determination and will power as they often fought back from a ten or twenty point deficit to capture an exciting win. Individual and team effort was the key to Southern's victories.

A new season begins.

Prear rebounds for Jimmy.

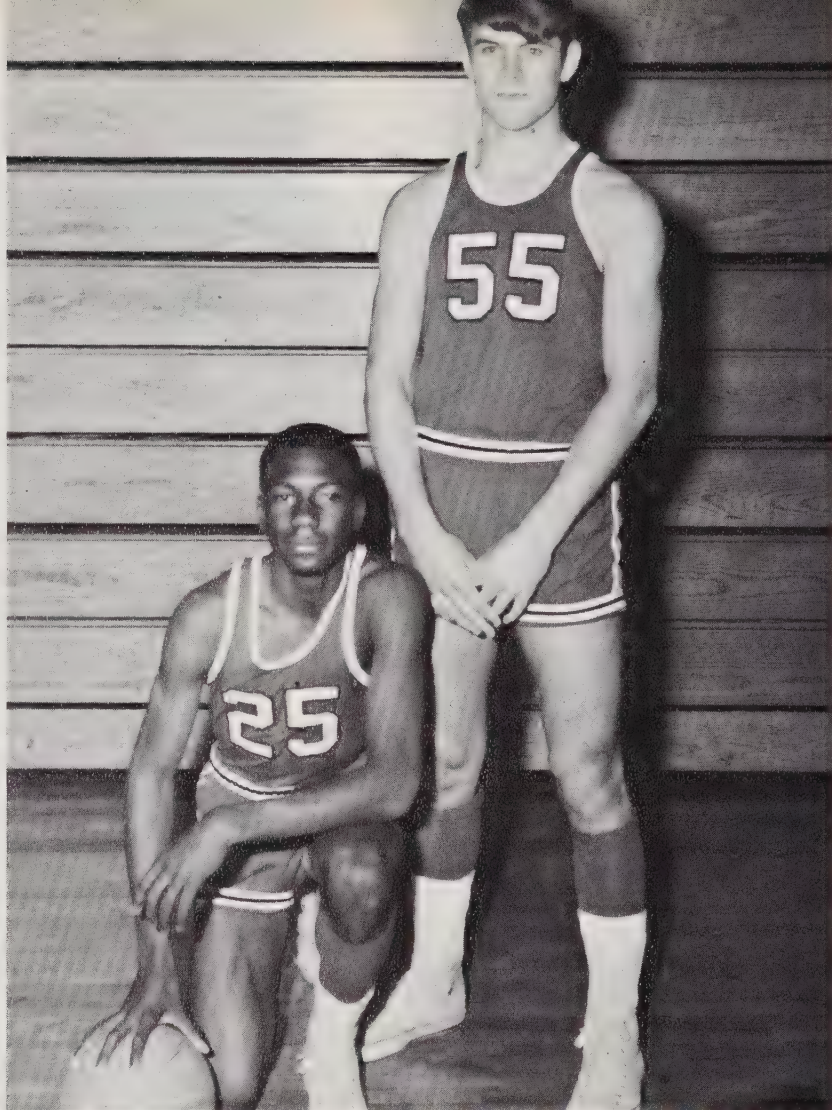

Teague screens for Bobby.

Confeds Display Excellent Potential

Southern's Varsity basketball players spent long hard hours working after school exercising and listening to the loud, constructive criticism from Coach Clayton. Although the players detested the torture each day, they stuck to it with a determined effort for improving their skills and improving their shooting ability. The team was lead by co-captains Christy Teague and Phillip Prear.

This years' basketball team, determined with a will to succeed, worked hard to better develop their skills. In doing so they strenghened their team work and provided great competition for the other teams. Although the team did have to accept disappointments, they still played well and put all their effort behind the ball.

J.V. Basketball

Even though Southern's Junior Varsity Basketball team did not win all of their games, they showed much ability, achievement, and spirit while competing with their foes. Quite a few of the J.V. players will be valuable assets on next year's varsity squad.

Grapplers Aquire Skill

For the first time, Southern had a wrestling team this year. Although the 1968-69 season was not very successful, it marked the beginning of what we hope will be a continuing and popular sport at Southern. Even though the grapplers were inexperienced, they provided plenty of exciting entertainment.

It takes two to tango!

Confederates Compete Successfully

This year's Confed baseball team takes to the diamond with ten returning lettermen from last year's squad. In addition to this experienced strength, a new head coach, Mr. James Carter has been added to teach our team and give them the moral support they need to play as a unit to win ball games. The Confed sluggers look forward to a successful season and hope to maintain an excellent conference standing. This year's team will be sparked by pitchers Terry Johnson, Garry Watkins, and Christy Teague plus the hitting power of Mike Allen and Robbie Stout.

Track Teaches Endurance

Speed, skill, and strength are important assets in track. Coach Hanford directed the boys and helped them train and develop their skills. Even with the help of a coach the team must still possess determination, endurance, and the will to outscore their opponents.

Tennis Requires Speed

The Southern High tennis team will take to the court in early spring in hopes of completing a successful year. Coach James Sipe's more experienced players should be Steve Knighten, Steve Baker, and Tim Hudson. The team should also be aided by several of the younger players from last year.

Squires, Hawkins, Hudson, Baker, Holt, Allred, and May.

Golfers "Swing"

Under the guidance of Coach Hiram Coble, the Confed golf team should prove to have a successful year. Although valuable members from last year's squad will be missed, experenced players, Frankie Layne and Eddie Parsons, will be returning. Other members from last year's team that should prove to be valuable assets are Ricky Loy and Steve King.

Sylvia Boggs, Janice Holt, Pat Isley, and Camilla Jones were nominated by the football players to run for Homecoming Queen of 1969. After all the votes of the entire student body had been counted, Sylvia Boggs found the coveted title of 1969 Homecoming Queen bestowed upon her. Having cheered for four years, being Chief Cheerleader this year, and being editor of the So-Hi News are some of Sylvia's achievements while at Southern.

Alumni return for Homecoming Festivities

Practice meant aching feet, hot sun, and frayed tempers.

After many days of preparation for the "big event," we experienced one of the wettest Homecomings ever. Because of the Friday night rains, our Homecoming was postponed until the following Monday night with the dance being delayed until the next Friday night. The theme for this year's event was "This Is My Country."

Many thanks are due Mrs. Loy, Mrs. Fox, and Mr. Rhodes, who graciously contributed their time and energy in organizing our Homecoming and helping make it successful.

This year's Miss Southern pageant came to its climax with the crowning of Miss Camilla Jones as Miss Southern 1969. For her talent, Camilla presented a beautifully touching dramatic reading. Vickie Herndon was chosen first runner-up. She gave a lovely rendition of "Moon River" for her talent. The honor of being second runner-up went to Frankie McPherson, who performed an elaborate baton routine. Other contestants were Lucy Hill, Cathy Tinnin, Karen Shields, Jackie Bailey, Dona Isley, Libby Curtis, Betsy Shoffner, Addie Sessoms, Wanda McGhee, Cheryl Hollar, Diane Neese, Janice Holt, Linda Cashwell, and Jane Cooper. Factors determining the judges' selection were character traits, activities, poise, beauty, and talent, respectively. This year's theme was "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

After competing with sixteen other contestants, the lovely Miss Camilla Jones was named Miss Southern, 1969. Her winning personality, smiling face, and constant vitality have made her popular at Southern.

Besides working hard as assistant editor of the So-Hi-News and being a cheerleader, Camilla was recognized as an Outstanding Senior.

Camilla will enter the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill next semester and will major in elementary education.

What has high school meant to us seniors? For some, its completion marks the end of formal education. For others, it has been preparation for higher learning. And for still others, its completion means the beginning of an independent life. Most meaningful of all, however, are the memories which will always remind us of our reign as seniors.

Sophomores take a larger

Thankful for having completed their first year at Southern and for no longer being scornfully referred to as "freshmen," the sophomores began their new year with a great deal of spirit and enthusiasm. They assumed added responsibilities and privileges and eagerly looked forward to next year when they would finally become upper classmen.

Freshmen prepared for new

Arriving at Southern for the first time was a very frightening experience for this year's freshmen. With a will to make friends and to be accepted by upper classmen, they tried to fit into the high school pattern. The first frantic weeks were the worst—getting into the wrong class, feeling lonely, trying to learn new names, waiting in long lunch lines, and worst of all being called “green.”

A Will To Communicate

New names and faces . . . stop that talking in the back . . . teacher's meeting . . . where will they be in ten years . . . 3:05 at last . . . four years, then they are gone . . . have I done my best . . .

Key to progress

Here we find the heart of Southern — what makes it tick. All the complexities of running Southern High School, enforcing regulations, and formulating school policy, are found in the administrative office.

Mr. L. M. Adcock ... a man who fills the shoes of Southern's principalship.

Mrs. Esther Rene King ... school secretary who controls the "nervous system" at Southern.

Mr. Robert Stockard ... back of the principal stands this efficient partner.

Counselors guided future plans

A mixture of problem solving, rescheduling, decision making, college selecting — our Guidance

Department serves daily to guide students to greater horizons.

Mrs. Marlette . . . vitalizes Guidance Department

Elaine and Jane discuss plans for secretarial school.

Jane Riggs is assisted in straightening out her schedule.

Mr. Clemments . . . files student information.

Math improved logic

Southern's mathematics department can offer appropriate courses both to those who are college-bound and to those who are business-bound.

The student can choose from business or general math, geometry, or trigonometry, or three years of modern algebra.

Miss McPherson . . . wishes for an intercom that will work.

Mr. Rimmer . . . dreams of Seniors being dignified.

Mrs. Woody . . . instructs freshmen in the "problems" of algebra.

Mr. Andrews . . . finds his duty at the smoking barrel interesting.

Mrs. Jones . . . mixes teaching with a bright smile.

Mr. Bach . . . baffles students with his intelligence.

New discoveries in science emerged

Our understanding of the world around us increases as we gain a greater knowledge of science. Whether studying Newton's law of gravity, the marvel of live functions, the secrets of the atom, or the theory of relativity, the science student is captivated by the wonders of the world.

Mrs. Sexton . . . sets example for all students to follow.

Miss Brown . . . works diligently with biology students.

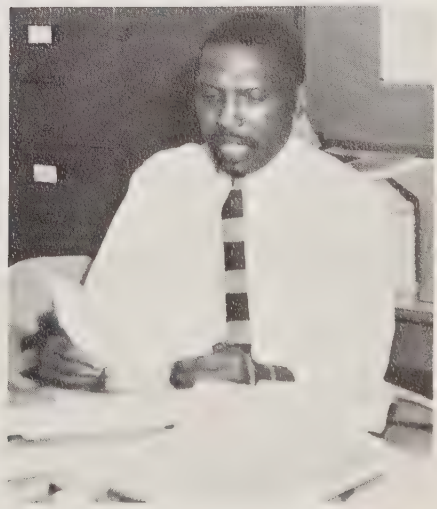

Mrs. Hadley . . . discovers reward as advisor of Beta Club.

Mr. Clemments . . . teaches biology to interested advanced students.

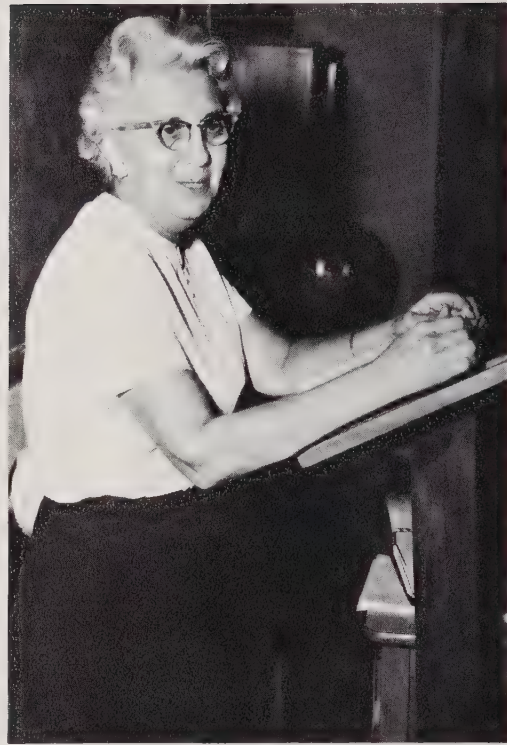

Mr. Stockard . . . serves double-duty as chemistry teacher.

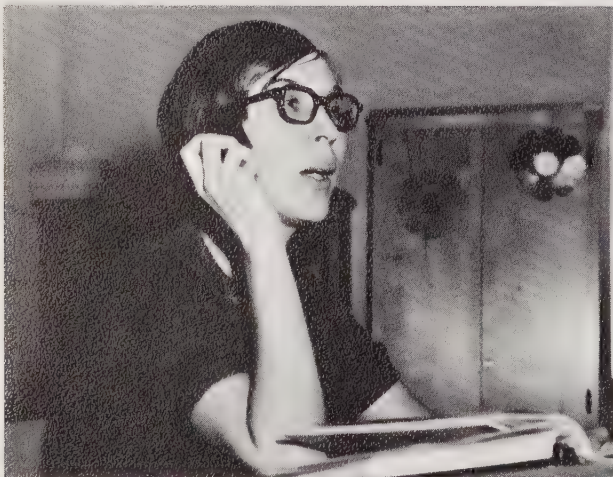

Mr. Carter . . . adapts readily to instruction of students.

Mrs. Patton . . . believes in hard work.

Mr. Ellerbee . . . wins admiration of English pupils.

Mrs. Miller . . . takes much time with new Advanced Composition classes.

Mrs. Fox . . . dedicates herself to advising annual staff.

Miss Morgan . . . has a note of cheer for students.

Literature portrayed Life

English involves the study and understanding of a familiar yet complex language. Often the drudgery of grammar gives way to the variety of discovering our heritage through authors of Great Expectations, Silas Marner, The Scarlet Letter, and Macbeth.

Mrs. Loy . . . brings alive literature for her classes.

Mrs. Euliss . . . gives her lecturn a work-out.

Linda Cooper, Tommy Coble, and Phil Massey use their study hall to review English.

Mr. Williams . . . learns freshmen's names.

Foreign interests stimulated

Foreign language students at Southern acquire not only an understanding of the language which they study, but also a knowledge of the country whose language they study. The curriculum consists of two years of Spanish, three years of Latin, and four years of French for those who wish to broaden their knowledge.

Mrs. Nichols . . . likes to use lab to stimulate conversational French.

Mrs. Dismuke . . . thinks the Latin Club is beneficial.

Miss Marcom . . . presents Spanish as a challenge to students.

History instilled patriotism

Mrs. Davis . . . wants juniors at Southern to receive the best.

Mrs. Primm . . . finds television a great help in teaching.

History-a record of the past, a current event of the present, a key to the future-helped students to understand today's world better.

Mr. Jarrett . . . broadens seniors' concept of economics.

Mr. Stanley . . . spends much time assisting bus drivers.

Mr. Mason . . . adds new personality to history department.

Mrs. Jarvis . . . enjoys working with Confederettes.

Trade study prepared boys

Driving a car is one thing, but keeping it in running condition holds the real challenge. Boys learned what to call the "thing-a-ma-jig" or "Whatcha-doddle" and how they were put together in auto mechanics.

Mr. Bishop . . . conveys a course in electronics.

Mr. Hornaday . . . teaches auto mechanics to interested boys.

Electronics, a new course at Southern, trains students in a specialized field.

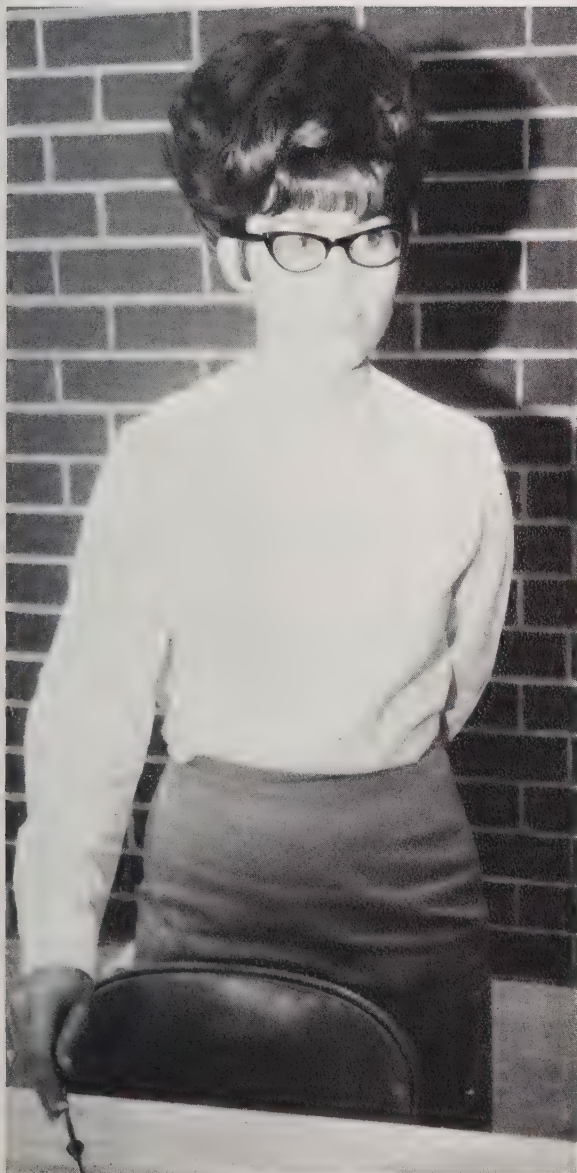

Mr. Clayton . . . instructs driver education students.

Creative abilities developed

Southern's newly created art department offers two courses—commercial art and drafting. These programs intend to challenge the creative abilities of the student and to enhance his ability to be sensitive and inventive.

Mrs. Walker . . . presents a new drafting course.

Mrs. Redding . . . occupies students with art and drama.

Homemaking proved beneficial

Southern's domestic arts program offers three years of home economics plus one year of family life education for seniors and one year of home economics for boys. Through these courses the students become better prepared for family life.

Miss Gregory . . . acquaints seniors with family living.

Miss McBane . . . demonstrates good homemaking.

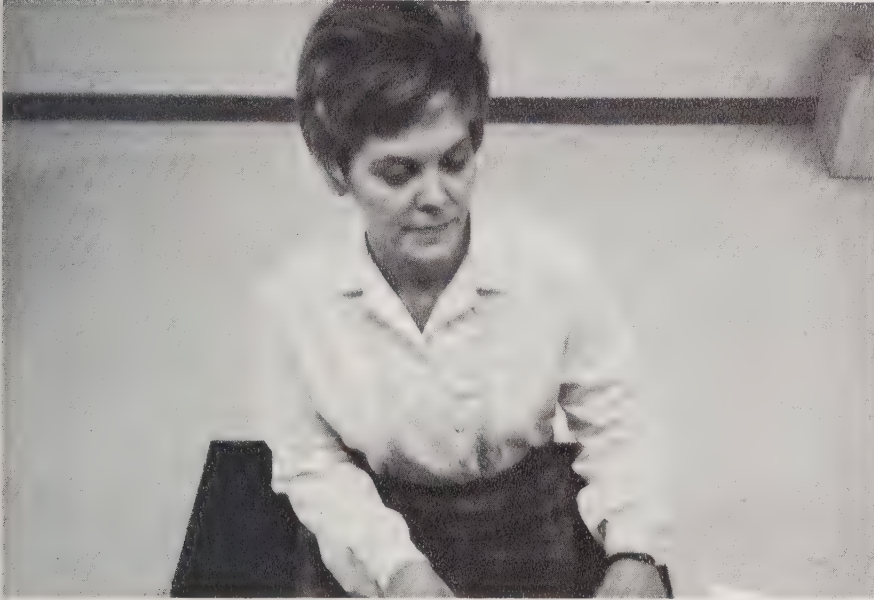

Mrs. Stephens . . . urges girls to perfect themselves in homemaking.

Musical talents broadened

Music-master of tears, smiles, wonder—instills love and appreciation in all those who participate. The Music Department's main purpose is to help the students develop their talents and to provide a variety of music for the school.

Mrs. Shaw . . . sings along with the Glee Club.

Mr. Rhodes . . . tunes up the band for parades and concerts.

Farming techniques mastered

Southern's Agriculture Department provides students with a thorough education in agricultural science. The students not only learn techniques in farming, construction, and the use of tools, but they also get a chance to put their knowledge to work by helping to keep our school grounds in shape.

Mr. Teachey . . . prepares the boys for correct farming.

Mr. Honeycutt . . . explains the problems of Ag. to students.

Mr. Wilson . . . devotes much of his time to Student Council work.

Physical-fitness achieved

The body as well as the mind must be developed well and have a healthy place to grow—it is the shell of life and essential to everyone. Advanced “P.E.” as well as health and physical education have become popular courses at Southern.

Miss Williams . . . keeps the freshmen girls healthy and fit.

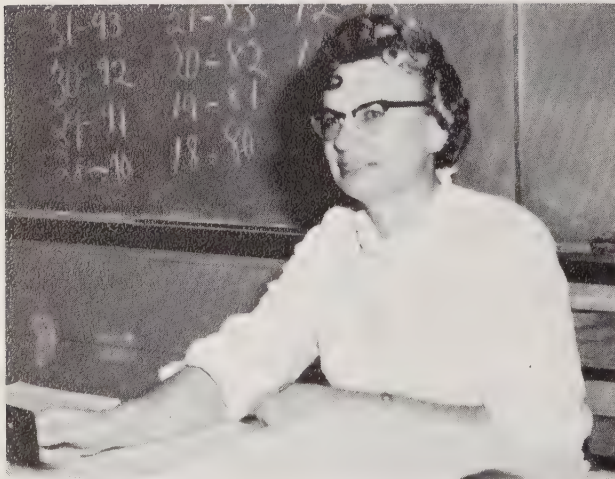

Mr. Matthews . . . coaches Southern's dedicated athletes.

Mrs. Price . . . advises the So-Hi News Staff.

Miss Perry . . . observes correct typing habits in students.

Miss Sharpe . . . works with Civinettes on service projects.

Mrs. Coley . . . presents the techniques of typing to pupils.

Students trained for business

Mr. Abernathy . . . lends a helping hand to everyone.

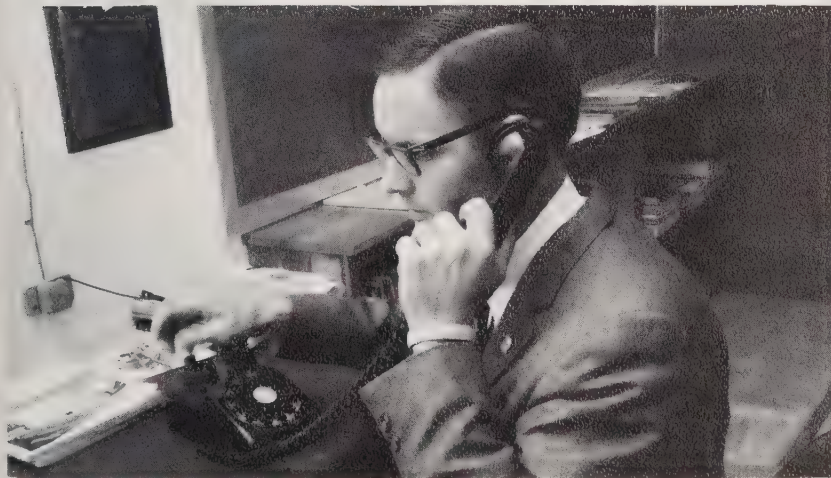

To prepare young people for business in a modern world stands as the major aim of Southern's commercial department. Whether as competent secretaries or prominent executives, the students pictured themselves far into the future working not only for the essential value but also for the security of having a place in the world.

Mr. Sipe . . . instructs his classes in marketing.

Mr. Hanford . . . demands top performance of boys at practice

Mr. Coble. . . shares a pleasing personality with all.

Mr. Huey . . . is well liked by his students.

Library offered refuge for study

For a well-rounded and complete education one has to visit the library, whether for reference or just to look at a magazine. Southern's library has proved to be an essential part of the learning for almost every student. Many students spent hours of hard work on term papers, while others rushed their heads off trying to finish an over due book report.

Our new librarian gave guidance and kept the library well organized.

Mrs. Emory . . . takes over job of librarian.

Mrs. Patton . . . aids students in library.

Students use extra time to broaden their learning.

School Employees Render Service

Mrs. Sally Howerton-Cafeteria Manager

Mrs. Howerton and her cafeteria staff face the difficult task of preparing a well balanced meal for approximately twelve hundred hungry students and teachers five days a week.

Our custodians have the tedious job of keeping Southern neat and attractive.

Back row: C. White, A. Stone, H. Ketner, T. Kimball, F. Vinson, C. Allen, M. Alston, S. Howerton, Front Row: E. Lloyd, H. White, M. Schronce, E. Coble, A. Patton, F. Younger

Jimmy,

We've shared some wonderful years like 12 of them. I still don't believe we're seniors. I know I don't feel like one. After graduation, everybody goes in different directions and never see each other again. I guess that's what makes the senior year so sad.

Oh well, everything's got to change. Just don't you change. It's been great knowing you (everybody says that don't they), but I really mean it. I hope you receive the best life has to offer and may God bless you at all times.

Do you reckon you and me turned out to be the hoods of the Sr. Class? We started off pretty good - what happened? Oh well as you would say, "You got to roll with the punches?"

If you can get sex off your mind long enough to speak, you're a pretty good guy. I hope they reinforce Campbell this summer cause I've got a feeling you're going to tear it apart. But while you're down there than in the place up. I hope you'll stop to think about me - working a lot of and really care of - the thing. Seriously, I've had a lot of fun and these memories mean a lot to me. I hope you can find happiness in life and be filled with happiness and love.

Love

With one goal accomplished — the will yet remains

So here we are. How many opportunities have you passed up this year? Many of us have found new meaning in life while others just drifted aimlessly along. When will you find your answer—today, tomorrow, years from now? Perhaps you can find one memory of this past year to cherish. In all of God's vast universe, we have experienced only a small portion of His plan. The coming years will bring to each of us happiness and grief, sadness and joy, mystery and truth and also a means to conquer our wildest dreams. If there's to be tomorrow, what will it take today? We may try and fail but we can rise up to succeed once more—If there's A WILL!

*Jimmy
Although I have any classes with you see you go to the future I love
Katie Hawkins*

Jimmy,

I don't quite know where to begin but here I go. I have really enjoyed knowing you these last four years, but I think I have enjoyed our Senior year the most. I didn't really know you very well until Homecoming when I broke up with Johnny & you with Denise and then things started rolling. I even found out that we are distant relatives. I guess that explains why we're so much alike — as you say ODD. I really consider you one of my best friends I only hope that you just consider me an ordinary friend. If you think that much of me, I'll be happy. Sometimes I worry because I wonder what will happen to you but I guess where there is a will there is a way. I know you have many wild dreams & ideas but I'll ~~bet~~ anyone that you will succeed in what you undertake. Next year will be very different because you'll be on your own and I would like to wish you the best of luck. Always laugh & smile as you've always done and you'll go a long way in life. When you have got your motel in the Caribbean just think of me back home working myself to death. May God bless you always <sup>and</sup> if you ever need a friend just call on me.

Sincerely yours,

Dona Isley
Senior 68-69

Jimmy Mac,

You are the funniest guy
I know. English class has really been brightened up with your questions. These four years have been great. I suppose what I will miss about this school is the ball games. You have put a lot of time into sports and I know you will miss them.

all the memories esp. the Beach last year. that was a blast! I suppose we all will see each other down there at graduation.

Best of luck next year and try to stay out of trouble.

Jimmy,
 How about working for his K.R. this summer.
 That's all I need to get us
 the really started with a bang.
 We really had a pretty good time doing nothing. Good luck to a great guy with a nutty personality.
 Remember us next year while we're studying hard at S.H.S.
 P.S. Watch those beach trips!
 Love,
 Dave Sutterlin

Jimmy,
 You dirty rat, you better not go to the Convention. You deserve a beating cause you remember what I'm going to do to you if you don't treat Cygn right. She's too good for you. You burn. You better behave at Campbell or else!
 Best wishes in the future

Jimmy,
 Knowing you these past few years has really meant a lot to me and I value your friendship very much. You're a great guy so I won't believe anything bad about you. Best wishes for a wonderful future.
 You deserve the best.
 I hope we'll see each other after graduation.
 Be a good little boy.
 Love always,

Jimmy,

You are a nut! And also a terrible influence on Christy. I'll bet he was a good boy till he started running around with you! Ha. I'm just kidding of course. You're really a great guy with a wonderful personality. Stay as dumb as you are now and you will go far in life. Good luck to you & Cynthia in the future.

Love,
Dee Brooks

Jimmy - You were in the pro shop! And it has been nice knowing you although I don't know you. Anyway,

Come see us over to Confederate Acres,

this summer -

might be in the pro

shop.

Jimmy,
you are a good friend and I like you. Be good at college and stay out of trouble. And stay out of friend
Beverly's car

P.S. may all your ups + downs be in bed
HA HA

Jimmy,
It really has been fun
in glee club with you this year.
you really do worry Mrs. Shaw a lot. Keep up the good work of carrying out Don. Best wishes for next year.

Timmy,
 It has been a lot of fun being in algebra
 class with you this year.
 Your little jokes have really brightened your class!
 You have also been a good messenger between Gary and me. You're a real sport, old boy!
 Good luck at Cambell!
 Love ya,

Jimmy,

Where do I begin? Mr. Rimmer really gave you hell this year (& you gave him a little, too). I just hope Sue helped you some if ~~not~~ much!

He really had a swinging at the beach Easter (maybe too swinging)! Thanks for following us down and "helping" with the tire. I'll never forget Monday night (I'm just hoping I will). Sue never cried so much in all my life. Of course you wouldn't remember (Ha! Ha!). I can't wait to play Northwest next year (if you know what I mean)!

Jimmy, you're really a great guy and I think the world of you. I really enjoyed our "little talks" this year. I just hope that we'll always be the best of friends. You better write to me next year from college and I mean it. Good Luck and please, study hard next year.

Love ya always,
Connie Gibson

Jimmy,
Josh - you left me a whole page and I can't think of a thing to write! ha

Really, Jimmy - you have to be one of the greatest guys I know! (Guess what - I can't write a straight line!) I don't know about this 13th hole bit but it sounds like a winner to me!!
'cause with a personality like yours how could a person lose? I'm glad you're far in life I know keep you straight now 'cause if you didn't I'd be afraid to go out on the streets at night!
(I'm only kidding - well maybe a little)

I'm glad you and Brent are such good friends - that way the four of us will have a chance to be together this summer and maybe get that ranch check on the draw-in!! We've got another place to show you'll, but that'll have to wait until the summer. You're a great guy and I know you see that life gives you all it has to offer.

Love you,
Phyllis

<sup>Reserved</sup> thing will break us up!" I pray each night that our love continues.

Gimmie stay sweet and wonderful and don't get into trouble. Take care of yourself and remember me when you're lonely. I'm always there, whether you know it or not. I hope ~~your~~<sup>that</sup> your future is made up of the beautiful dreams you've told me about. Who knows, maybe I'll be a part of them someday. I'm sure we would have a beautiful and happy marriage.

You deserve all life can offer and it should be the very best. I'm not the best, my lust to make you happy me more and more.

will do good in College, because he will power, if you will stay and study. Just finishing college good in it, will make me happy.
while you're at it.

I hope this summer and next year won't split us up. I hope we'll be even closer, even if we're farther apart.

always remember I love you. Each time I'm near you, you make me happier and more and more in love with you.

Take care and may the "Lord up above," answer all your wishes and prayers.

All my love forever!

I love you,
